

I have never purchased any goods or services offered by telemarketers.
Their calls are nothing more than harassment.
I would like to make my own decisions on whom to call for goods or services and not be accosted or coerced into thinking I must buy their products.